

Here are some ideas and sentence starters to get you started with your 'Little Bear' description. You could even use them as a plan to help structure your writing. Don't forget to use powerful description and lots of ways to engage the reader. Then check your punctuation and edit if you need to. (Imagine your teacher is nagging you!)

As the little bear began to wake, he/she...

His/her eyes blinked _____ly, his nose/ears twitched...

Rolling over, in his _____, he stretched/yawned/scratched, his tummy grumbled _____ly.

He shook the dirt from his _____, _____ coat and licked his fur until it shone like _____.

All through the long winter, the little bear had dreamed of...

She could hardly wait to.... and

Excitedly he/she crept out of her den...

Finish your writing by describing what the little Bear does as he emerges from his den for the first time since hibernating for the winter.

When you edit, if you have not already done so, then up-level and improve the words and phrases in green!