

- ★ Now plan your instructions for setting up the trap. Use the planner below (and my instructions) to help you.

Underlying structure	Jot down your ideas in note form
Ask a question to the reader to draw them in, e.g. Are you ... Would you ...
What you need: List of items needed for the trap
What you do: The steps you need to set up the trap. Use your adverbs to show the order First, Next, After that, Then, Now, Finally,
Final word of warning

Write away!

Now you're ready to write your instructions! Use your plan and draft them on a separate piece of paper and don't forget to check the punctuation and flow. Does it sound bossy enough?

Well done! You've done a great job completing the activities.

Do you want to do more writing?

If you want to do more writing, you could try some INVENTING by using what you have learnt at school already. Here are a few ideas:

- ★ Write a story where your main character has an adventure in a magical jungle. Use a story pattern that you know or use this basic structure:

Once upon a time, ...

One day, ...

Unfortunately, ...

Luckily, ...

In the end, ...

- ★ Write another list poem about somewhere else you could explore. Use the title: Through my telescope, I saw ...
- ★ Write an information text about the creature that you captured in your trap.
- ★ Write a letter to a friend telling them about your exploring. Ask them to plan a trip with you.
